

STRAIGHTJACKET

Featuring:

Marco Mendoza, Joey Heredia & Steve Weingart

A trio from L.A. in the USA.

An incredibly tight band responsible for the special sound, a funky soul-fusion with an unbelievable groove.

All members of the band are cool guys with impressive resumes.

These 3 gifted musicians produce an uplifting and completely enjoyable effort to knock your funky socks off.

Their unique blend of "covers" and own material draws the listener in and holds him on the edge of his seat.

Their music is a jazz/rock/funk/westcoast kind of mix with a lot of covers (with a definite twist!) as well as their own material.

As the guys have latin background their music has a lot of latin influences.

MARCO MENDOZA:

6 strings fretless bass, vocals - and a lot of strange sounds and plenty of dancing.

How many pairs of shoes does this guy wear out in a year ?!?!

Marco "The Great" Mendoza has performed with artists such as Al Jarreau, Michael Ruff, Edgar Winters, Chaka Kahn, Herb Albert, Scott Hendersson, Tower of Power and the Cranberries.

JOEY HEREDIA:

hot,hot,hot drummer with a razor sharp groove!

Have played with Stevie Wonder, Sheila E, Frank Gambale and many more

STEVE WEINGART:

They are now joined by keyboardist Steve Weingart, who have previously worked with Dave Weckl Band as well as Weckl and Kennedy in an acoustic bebop setting. The resulting musical chemistry is instantaneous and explosive.
